

DR DAVID DUFTY (AM) AWARD FOR EXCELLENCE IN TEACHING AND LEARNING IN SOCIETY AND CULTURE

Lyn Kirkby, Executive Director, Quality Teaching, NSW Education Standards Authority (left) with award recipient Persis Kshetrapal

2020 Recipient – Persis Kshetrapal

The SCA Committee would like to extend warm congratulations to Persis Kshetrapal, the 2020 recipient of the Dr. David Dufty Award for excellence in teaching and learning in Society and Culture. You may recognise Persis from presentations at our HSC Study Days, where she delivers engaging materials related to the Beliefs and Ideologies topic. Persis used this presentation as part of her evidence submission, where she was able to clearly articulate in her application a significant contribution to developing excellence in teaching and learning within the subject over time. Her application reflected an extremely sophisticated evaluation of the teaching standards and reflection of the evidence provided, attaining achieved with excellence across all facets of evidence and application, as determined by the review committee.

Thankyou for supporting teachers and students of Society and Culture in aspiring to excellence Persis! You can see her in action at the upcoming SCA PL day at the State Library of NSW, where she will be talking about assessment in the Preliminary course from a classroom teacher's perspective.

You can also view the HSC 2020 Award photos and information about recipients here: <https://sca.nsw.edu.au/2020-hsc-results-and-pip-awards/>

Please view extracts of Persis's submission in the following pages.

Louise Dark, President