

MESSAGE FROM THE CULTURESCOPE CO-EDITORS

CultureScope, Vol 123, 2022

Welcome to the first edition of CultureScope for 2022. Volume 123 aims to acknowledge the achievements of students and their teachers in Society & Culture. As we start the year tackling the tail end of the pandemic, we are aware of how important it is to stop and acknowledge hard work and success through the Society and Culture Awards. In addition to our yearly collection of extracts from the HD award winning PIP's, we have a selection of teaching and learning resources curated from across the Preliminary and HSC course.

A reminder of our upcoming PD opportunities and Student Days:

- Keep on PIPping
- HSC Study Day

This journal is not possible without the contributions of teachers. With many teachers creating or modifying teaching and learning materials over the past term can we please encourage you to share them with your colleagues via a CultureScope submission.

CultureScope is seeking contributions for publication for the end of year volume. We welcome a variety of classroom activities, articles, assessment tasks, programs and teacher reflections.

For each submission please ensure you:

- Identify the syllabus dot-point/focus area (if relevant)
- Ensure references are used throughout
- Give a brief overview of why it has worked well in your class (teacher rationale)
- If it is an assessment task, please provide a marking guideline/suggested answers OR student samples (with permission)
- Be aware we may need to change pictures/text layout
- Email attachment to info@sca.nsw.edu.au with the subject 'CultureScope submission'
- Provide your name, address and school details within the email

Benefits

You will be paid $$$$ for your submission. For new-scheme teachers, a published journal article counts for 2 hours (Teacher Identified).

Any other suggestions for resources in future editions are welcome.

Warm regards,
CultureScope Co-editors
Emily Aitken & Amanda Newell
